LANpin de Pâques

La chasse aux œufs, pour le week-end de Pâques, c'est ringard.

De toute façon, avec le réchauffement climatique, à 9 h 30 le matin tout aura déjà fondu, alors que vous serez encore en train de faire la grosse matinée. Tandis que si vous allez traîner vos guêtres du côté de Poitiers, et plus précisément du Futuroscope, entre le 7 et le 9 avril, vous tomberez sur pas loin de 900 joueurs qui s'en donneront à cœur joie à l'occasion de la Gamers Assembly, et un bon gros paquet d'exposants qui vous feront profiter des nouveautés 2012. Dans une ambiance conviviale de sandwichs frites, au son des ventilateurs et des "NAÏLCE", ça défouraillera sur Call of Duty (Modern Warfare 1 et 3), Team Fortress 2, Counter-Strike Source, League of Legends, Starcraft 2. Et ça fera de vilains excès de vitesse sur tous les TrackMania du monde connus. Et puis surtout, les joueurs pourront tester en exclusivité galactique ShootMania Storm. Eh ouais.
